

The Minuchin Center
for the Family

Structural Family Therapy Training
EXTERN CLASS:

What is it? How does it work? What will I learn?

The Minuchin Center for the Family is offering an Extern Program in Structural Family Therapy in New York City (both day and evening groups). The program will be in October 2009 and run for 30 sessions. The cost is $2,400.

The training covers Structural Family Therapy concepts, principles, techniques and interventions, useful for work in agencies and/or private practice. Externs also are able to attend any of the Center's Friday workshops free of charge.

The Extern Program includes didactic (lecture, discussion and family therapy videos) and experiential components (supervision of student's sessions). Participants must be currently working with couples/families and be able to present videotapes of sessions or bring in families for live supervision.

Learn clinical skills that you can apply immediately to:

- Difficult and "impossible" cases
- Non-traditional families
- Community-based interventions with poor families
- Child/school problems
- Families and substance abuse

Register for any Fall Extern Program by August 1st and receive a $100. DISCOUNT
